

Exequiel Soltero

- Exequiel founded the Maya's restaurants in 1979 in Seattle and Kent.
- He is a board member of Ernie Aguilar Scholarship Endowment at the University of Washington Business School and also helps low-income families gain access to youth soccer.
- In addition, he is the founder of La Liga Hispana, the largest Hispanic adult soccer league in the state of Washington that is now celebrating its 20th anniversary.
- Exequiel is also the founder and investor of Plaza Bank.

Written Acceptance of Nomination

I accept this nomination and look forward to the opportunity to run for re-election.

Exequiel Soltero

4/3/2013